Hey there good people of this city. It is time for painting, it is life. Life that is born and grows into a beautiful painting.

Life is like a painting of many different colours and meanings. Life can have many meanings and many meanings. On the street ask yourself what do you see? Is it the same as someone was thinking and feeling when they were born? This is what art is about. And life is the greatest piece of art.

Life explodes in many different stories and it can be broken. There is a perfect meaning of life. It is like a fragile object that can be repaired. This meaning means that there are many meanings easily thus his or her heart shatters. However if one person's emotions can become shielded by the negativity caused by art in a subtle way. Art is not just a painting but is also a story.

I am sorry to keep it short today but this does not mean I will have another talk about other stuff. But remember the meanings of art. And all of its beauty that surrounds everyone, until next time.

 Sherry Schumardo

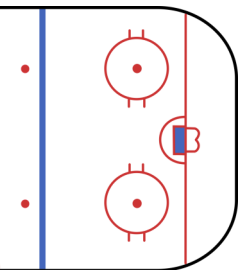

My name is Sherry Schumardo. I have been an artist for eight years. It will be nine years on January 31, 2016, I have been that long.

I would like to talk to you about my art projects in the Art Zone. I am inspired by the ideas in my head and have been making my own stuff for my apartment. I will be in the Fall.

I am looking forward to moving on my own. I am taking care of myself right now and feel like I have a lot of great ideas.
